

To—the Do List

1 STAY Doors are about to open at Soho House Barcelona, the latest addition to the portfolio of this apparently unstoppable private members' club. The 18th-century building in Spain has 57 bedrooms, lusciously designed by Lázaro Rosa-Violán.

2 RELAX

One for the crowd in town for Fashion Week: the darkly sleek, mold-breaking looks of the Armani Hotel spa in Milan have just won best design at the World Spa Awards.

3 RIDE

Weighing just 35 pounds, the Evoluzione, from Italian car designer Pininfarina and Danish bicycle company Diavelo, makes electric bikes desirable—and portable.

4 WATCH

Broadway's wise-cracking 1920s newsroom comedy The Front Page has a cast—John Goodman, Nathan Lane, John Slattery—worth holding the presses for.

5 BUY

This new collection of limited-edition, niobium-plated lamps at Espasso in New York shows Brazilian designer Claudia Moreira Salles at her most architectural.

6 VISIT

A Maarten Baas fan takes its place in "Houselife"—modern greats displayed alongside the permanent collection—at the MADD museum of decorative art in Bordeaux, France.
