

Mole Ottoman

by Sergio Rodrigues, 1958

Reference: #00001300

The 'Mole' ottoman accompanies Sergio Rodrigues' most iconic design, the 'Mole' armchair (meaning "soft" in Portuguese). Designed in 1961, the 'Mole' pieces are comprised of a solid rounded wood frame, adjustable leather support straps and a floppy, over-sized luxurious leather cushion. Robust and extremely comfortable, the 'Mole' sparked an international design trend that favored comfort, and a new attention to scale, over the rigid and antiseptic concurrent design trends, as it was awarded first prize at the IV Furniture Biennial in Italy.
