"B1" dining table's subtle details give way its most important elements, revealing Salles' inventive and considered solutions. Simple trestles, a functional catchy design accent, levitate the table's massive top with an airy and delicate quality, while its hand-chamfered; edges reveal Salles' ingenious use of form. A reinterpretation of traditional woodwork techniques, with utmost attention to details, the "B1" achieves both a straightforward functionality and compositional clarity.
