Cobogó Copacabana Coffee Table

by Lia Siqueira, 2002

In designing the Cobogó Copacabana coffee table, Lia Siqueira imagined it to occupy the interior of an Oscar Niemeyer building; Cobogó, an architectural element signature of the modernist movement that allows the entrance of sunlight and natural ventilation, is implemented in Siqueira's table top, realized in the pattern of the Copacabana sidewalk.

Lia Siqueira

Lia Siqueira is one of Brazil's leading contemporary architects and designers. Siqueira has won several awards from the Institute of Architects of Brazil and MOVESP, along with receiving the Selo Rio Design Award in 1996. Siqueira has run the architectural firm Azul Arquitetura & Design in Rio de Janeiro since 1987.

Siqueira's furniture designs reveal a visceral link with wood; employing a feminine, delicate approach towards the material that has garnered considerable admiration in Brazil and internationally.

Graduated in Architecture and Urbanism from Santa Úrsula University in Rio de Janeiro. After a brief experience at the German architecture firm Weidling, Kettner & Dr. Werner, Lia returns to Brazil to open Siqueira + Azul Arquitetura & Design. Together with Felipe and Betina Siqueira, she develops residential, commercial, corporate projects as well as furniture design. In architecture, she has been nationally awarded by the Brazilian Association of Architectural Offices (AsBEA-RJ) | House of Arches (2024), Cardal Chapel Shelter (2022); and by the Institute of Architects of Brazil – Rio de Janeiro (IAB-RJ) | Book House Annex (2020), Corrêa do Lago Library (2011) – Prize of the Year, Study Room (1991), Idea Space (1991).

Lia participated in the Time Space Existence exhibition during the Venice Architecture Biennale (2023), presenting the project Bandstand Square in collaboration with the artist Beatriz Milhazes. The work was later exhibited at the Instituto Casa Roberto Marinho in Rio de Janeiro as part of Beatriz Milhazes' exhibition Nomadic Paintings (2025).

Internationally, she has received recognitions including the iF Design Award | Musing Annex (2026), Janeiro Hotel (2022), Book House Annex (2022); Loop Design Awards | Blue Star House, Hillside Home (2026); Architecture MasterPrize | Musing Annex (2025); Architecture...
