

Cobogó Copacabana Coffee Table

by Lia Siqueira, 2002

In designing the Cobogó Copacabana coffee table, Lia Siqueira imagined it to occupy the interior of an Oscar Niemeyer building; Cobogó, an architectural element signature of the modernist movement that allows the entrance of sunlight and natural ventilation, is implemented in Siqueira's table top, realized in the pattern of the Copacabana sidewalk.

- Base structure made of cedar, freijo or imbuia wood
- Part of Etel collection
- Made to order
