

Brasiliانا Sofa

by Jorge Zalszupin

Jorge Zalszupin designed the Brasiliانا sofa in the late 1950's as an homage to Brasilia · the recently founded Brazilian capital designed by Oscar Niemeyer. Sinuous forms shape its wooden frame, reminiscent of Niemeyer's signature curves, and impeccably crafted details · wooden carved upholstery buttons, voluminous cushions, bolster pillow and brass hardware · complete the Brasiliانا, a mid-century classic in production for the first time since its original launch.
