

Suchus Stool

by Etel Carmona, 2014

Reminiscent of the style and elegance of 1930's design, Etel Carmona's Suchus stool, is made from American Walnut wood and alligator skin, sustainably harvested from a cooperative in the Amazon, in the most conscientious and artisanal form. Named after the scientific name of the alligator species Melanosuchus niger, the Suchus will be launched for the first time, in the US, at Em Trânsito.
