

Triangular Armchair

by Jorge Zalszupin

Reference: #00001869

Designed by Jorge Zalszupin in the 1960s, the Triangular armchair is clearly marked by Lina Bo Bardi's aesthetic influence; Bo Bardi looked to Brazilian popular culture for inspiration, and was particularly fascinated by sailing boats of the São Francisco River. The piece's structure is made in iron, with wooden detailing, which a canvas or leather piece is suspended upon to create a back and seat.

- Wooden detail available in variety of Imbuia and Freijo woods
