

Jerzy Chair

by Jorge Zalszupin, 1959

Designed by Jorge Zalszupin for L'Atelier in the 1960s, the charm of the Jerzy chair lies in the wooden curvature of its seat, accentuating the detail and quality of the Brazilian wood. Alongside its visual appeal, is the comfort of this piece, found in its stitched back and seat upholstery. The piece's name refers to its designer; 'Jerzy' is the name 'Jorge' in Polish.
