

Navona Armchair

by Sergio Rodrigues, 1960

This chair is named after Piazza Navona, one of the most important sites of the Italian capital and where the Brazilian Embassy is located.

Sergio Rodrigues designed a set of pieces for the ambassador's office in 1960 when the Brazilian government acquired the building, known as the Pamphilj Palace.

Orthogonal wood structure and matelassé upholstery characterize this armchair and the Pamphilj collection.

- Base structure available in natural or stained freijó wood
- Upholstered in a variety of fabrics, leather, COM/COL
