Mantik Armchair

by Attom, 2023

The simple yet compelling ‘Mantik’ collection, is named after the Mantiqueira Mountains, alluding to their beauty and resilience. Handmade with reclaimed peroba rosa wood and an oxidized steel structure, these materials were chosen for their resistance and compatibility with artisanal production.

Developed in a collaboration with EcoSimple, the seating upholstery features unique fabrics made of sustainable fibers, with textures that reference the mosses and lichens found on rocks and trees.

Attom

ATTOM emerged naturally and organically from a desire to share the results of decades of experience creating products, transforming used garments, and exploring comfort and compelling aesthetics.

The company was established in a warehouse beside a woodworking shop that has been operating for more than 45 years. This simple space serves as a studio, workshop, and store, a place where ATTOM develops products and creates comfortable, thoughtfully made pieces that combine responsibility, quality, and beauty. The brand values both personal and professional connections with its clients, making each relationship meaningful and unique.

ATTOM develops clothing, furniture, and functional objects guided by the principles of sustainability and social and environmental responsibility. The company remains committed to evolving within these values, creating not only products but also experiences that reflect its principles and purpose.
