

Leque Magazine Holder

by Gregori Warchavchik, 1928

Reference: #00000060

Designed in 1928 by modernist Gregori Warchavchik, the elegant "Leque" magazine holder was part of the furniture he designed to suit his seminal architectural projects. Made from native Brazilian woods, the versatile "Leque" can double as side table, as its flaps can be made to face either direction. Hints of art deco commingle with Brazilian modernism, as the "Leque" is an icon in Brazilian modern design. Part of the Etel collection.
