PL 13 Armchair

by Percival Lafer, 1963

Modular armchair, consisting of two separate volumes, one to be used as a seat and the other as a backrest, interconnected by two wooden L-shaped structures fixed to their sides through clamps with wooden buttons. The system allows the juxtaposition of modules, being able to form sofas without a limit in the number of seats.

ESPASSO

Percival Lafer

The company Lafer is today one of the most traditional furniture companies in Brazil. Since its very beginning, a strong image started to be forged by his tenacious will and commitment for quality and excellent customer service. An image which is still cultivated today, to the extreme.

In 1961, already in its second generation, the company entered into furniture manufacturing. Creativity and technological innovation stood behind the series of remarkable products launched during this period, which caused great impact on the marketplace, for its advanced designs and affordable prices.
